

Kent Mountain Adventure Center, Inc.

Participant Agreement

Kent Mountain Adventure Center courses are about adventure and human relations. They involve wilderness skills, group experiences, team building, problem solving, communication, trust, self-confidence, personal responsibility and building positive relationships. As a participant on a KMAC course, you are one member of a larger group. Being part of this group requires responsible actions.

The following guidelines are for your well-being and safety, as well as for the well-being and safety of the group. Please read the following carefully. Your agreement and signature are required for participation.

1. I will abide by all of the instructions and guidelines set forth by KMAC staff, the group, and myself.
2. I will fully participate in all activities with a cooperative attitude.
3. I will treat each group member, including KMAC staff, with respect and dignity.
4. I will not use foul language or profanity.
5. I will not engage in behavior that could jeopardize the safety of the group or myself.
6. I will follow all instructions as they relate to sensitive archaeological sites and to the natural environment.
7. I will not engage in any illegal activities during a KMAC course.
8. I will not use or possess alcohol, tobacco, weapons, or any controlled substances.
9. I will not engage in romantic activities or sexual conduct.
10. I will take care of the personal and group gear loaned to me from KMAC or from another group member. I understand that I will be charged for equipment that I knowingly abuse or lose.

I understand that any disregard for the above guidelines may result in my dismissal from the KMAC course at any time. I understand that I may be sent home at my expense, if deemed necessary by KMAC staff for my safety and the safety of others, and to insure the quality of the KMAC course.
